RED DEER HILL.

Quite a number of the Hill people were the guests of the Wiloughby boys at a dance held at Chas. Shearer's house recently. A nice crowd was present, and a thoroughly enjoyable evening spent by all, thanks to the efforts of their kind entertainers, to make the evening pass off pleasantly. The festivities were continued until all were able to go to their homes by the light of another day. Jack Ballentine and John H. McKay furnished the music, and wielded the law in such an able manner as to almost cause a wooden man to "Hoe it down."

We must congratulate our Wiloughby neighbors on making a success of all their undertakings in this way.

We are pleased to learn that Mr. Wm. Lyttie's two little girls who were so dangerously ill are both on the road to recovery.

John Giles has been under the weather for the past week, but is getting around again. The ailment seemed to be a combination of la grippe and his old enemy, rheumatism.

Jack Gaister has gone to the lumber woods for Sanderson & Co. He will likely remain until the breaking up of winter—accidents excepted.

R. W. Boylan has an attack of grippe from which he has recovered, evidently none the worse.

Farmers are looking somewhat blue on account of the poor market for farm produce. We trust the evil may soon be remedied.

Thos. Courtney, foreman for Mosson Boyd, has received from the east a car load of thoroughbred Hereford cattle. They were in rather poor condition on landing, but are mending now with the care bestowed upon them by Mr. Courtney.

There will be no scarcity of feed for cattle and horses here this winter. Some horses seen running out are keeping themselves in fine order on the wild grasses which grow so abundantly here.

A missionary meeting was held at the church Thursday evening, Jan. 28th. The building was well filled and all enjoyed the address given by Rev. Mr. Harrison.

D. Ballentine, our old neighbor, who has been working in Moore & Macdonald's lumber camp is down for a short time, until he has recovered from the common complaint—la grippe.

John Paul has purchased a grain crusher from Wm. Drain, and is now doing work for the farmers.

TOWN COUNCIL.

The Town Council met on Monday evening last.

All the members were present except Coun. Fish. His Worship Mayor Donaldson in the chair.

The Finance Committee recommended payment of account of PRINCE ALBERT TIMES for $11.50. Adopted.

An agreement was entered into with the Imperial Trusts Co., of Toronto, for the investment of Debenture Sinking Fund at five per cent interest.

The Court of Revision was set for the first Monday in June at 7:30 p.m.

Couns. Fish, Baker, Macdonald and Mayor Donaldson were appointed members of the Immigration Committee for 1892.

An account of $4 in favor of G. F. Mills was ordered to be paid.

Mayor Donaldson and Coun. Smith were appointed a committee to wait on J. L. Reid re completion of Town map which was not properly completed when made by Messrs. Reid & Campbell.

The Council then adjourned.

"A MOTHER IN ISRAEL."

Of Mrs. Mary Sinclair Inkster, relict of John Inkster, of Seven Oaks, whose decease is announced elsewhere, no one can be more fully named "A Mother in Israel." The last Earl of Ockney, before transfer of the islands to Scotland, was William Sinclair; and William Sinclair, also an Orcadian, and father of the deceased, was a chief factor of the Hudson Bay Company early in the century—stationed successively at York Factory and Oxford House. Mrs. Inkster was born at Oxford House in 1804; deceased's brothers, Thomas and James, were prominent in the old Red River settlement; and a sister was married to William Bann, R. B. C. (inscribed on his tombstone in St. John's cemetery as a "Liverman of London") whose children are honorably identified with Manitoba history. Other sisters were married to John Spencer and Robert Miles, also officials in the Hudson Bay service. A surviving brother is Capt. Colin Sinclair, late of San Francisco. The immediate descendants of Mrs. Inkster are Sheriff Inkster, John Inkster, of New Orleans, George Inkster, of North Dakota, Mrs. Stuehland, of St. Andrews, Miss Mary Inkster, of Seven Oaks, Mrs. McMurray, of Killdonnan, Mrs. Robt. Tait, of St. James, and Mrs. Archibald McDonald, of Fort Qu'Appelle. A son, William, who gave great promise of usefulness died many years since, leaving a family now resident in Winnipeg. The husband and father, John Inkster, was one of the old neuchants, a free trader, of the country, and died in 1874. It only remains to add in the words of a note received from William Coldwell: "Mrs. Inkster was a grand old lady, respected and beloved by all who were fortunate enough to become acquainted with her. She was remarkable for her liberality and largeness of heart. Her personality was a very special feature in the early history of the settlement and her influence will be largely felt." The deceased lady was also an aunt of J. E. and F. C. Sinclair, Mrs. Calder and Mrs. W. McKay, and a grand aunt of Thomas, James and Archibald McKay of our town.

IMMIGRATION COMMITTEE FOR 1892.

At the annual meeting of the Lorne Agricultural Society that body appointed three of its members to act on the above committee. The Town Council at Monday's meeting also appointed three Councilors, and the Board of Trade will perform a similar duty at its meeting next Friday. The committee when properly constituted will probably meet at once and arrange preliminaries. Communications of great interest to citizens have been received by the secretary of the committee from railway companies and others in the east relative to distribution of advertising matter. It is expected the committee will consider these, and devise ways and means of placing before incoming settlers all information regarding Prince Albert district.

NORTH WEST MISSIONS.

Sunday last the Rev. Mr. Harrison of Regina, preached in the Methodist church morning and evening. The morning service was in behalf of the educational interests of the church. Wesley college, Winnipeg, is supported by the Methodist body in this country and is maintained in a high state of efficiency. The annual missionary meeting was held in the evening. Mr. Harrison preached a very able sermon, setting forth the brotherhood of humanity and the duty of the christian church toward the heathen portion of the world. He then reviewed the work of the Methodist Missionary Society, making special reference to the operations of the church in Japan and China. The pastor of the church, Mr. Stacey, then read the annual report of the society, showing the total receipts during the past year to be over $243,000, an increase of some $23,000 over the preceding year, and an increase in the offerings from the Manitoba and Northwest conference alone of more than 30 per cent. He then asked the people for contributions and they liberally responded to the figure of $55, as against $25 last year, from the Methodist congregation here.

WEDNESDAY, FEB. 3, 1892.

The annual meeting of the Lorne Agricultural Society was held last week in the town hall. Reports of election of officers, etc., are to be found elsewhere in our columns. The slim attendance at the meeting clearly demonstrated that a lamentable lack of enthusiasm or interest is taken by those more directly interested in the management and business of an agricultural society. For reasons best known to themselves, the attendance of farmers was much below the average of former years. We think that all competent judges will bear out the statement that a society intended mainly to benefit the agriculturists of a district must have to become a success the hearty co-operation of that class of the community. We see no reason why such should not be the case here. It is doubtful if in any community of farmers in Canada a greater amount of intelligence or enterprise can be found than among the farmers of Prince Albert. It is therefore difficult to account for the lack of interest displayed this year at their annual meeting. We trust the newly elected officers of the association will be able to imbue our farmers with the responsibility resting upon them in this matter, and that in future no effort will be spared to aid and encourage immigration to our settlement, by the best and cheapest method of promoting it, namely, the best possible display of the results of farming operations by those already engaged in the noble pursuit of agriculture.

Information has reached here that Mr. C. Mair, an esteemed and wealthy citizen of Prince Albert, also well known as one of Canada's gifted literary characters, has formed a business connection in St. Paul, Minn. It is not known whether Mr. Mair will permanently reside there or not. The statement made by a local paper that the author of "Tecumseh" had left Canada because he could not make a living here is pure buncombe, and will be regarded by Mr. Mair and his friends and those who know the success which attended his trading operations in this country, whereby a comfortable fortune was amassed, as a mixture of impertinence and an ineffectual attempt at sarcasm. After some thirty years of roughing it in the west, it would be strange indeed if a gentleman possessed with the income Mr. Mair is known to have, should not desire a share of the comforts and attractions to be found in a city like St. Paul, and which of course Prince Albert as yet cannot offer. Doubtless the superior educational advantages of a city have also had their influence. Nothing less than Mr. Mair's signature to the statement will convince us that he has lost faith in the prosperous future of Canada which he has so frequently predicted, and in aid of which he has by word and pen so often lent valuable assistance or that he has entirely forsaken Canada and Canadians for the selfish and ignoble reasons already quoted.

The Empire says our Ottawa correspondent furnishes fresh evidence with which to confound the pessimists and grumblers who for political purposes are actively propagating the notion that we are going down the hill. The trade of the six months from July to December, 1891, makes a grand showing. Our exports amounted to $71,700,000 against $62,000,000 for the same period the previous year, a gain of $9,700,000, an indication of what our splendid harvest has done for us. Taking the exports for last month alone the showing is $8,600,000, against $5,700,000 in December, 1890, a gain of nearly $3,000,000. There are no signs here of Canadian surplus products unable to find a market. When we remember that the exports for a whole year—the fiscal year 1891, for instance, when they were the largest on record—are about $98,000,000, the total of $71,700,000 for only six months is seen to be remarkable. The howls of the pessimists are in proportion to the evidences of commercial prosperity—the better the showing, the louder the howls.

The deposits in the Post Office Savings Banks have begun to exceed the withdrawals, notwithstanding that the higher rate of interest in the chartered banks continues to attract deposits there. Last month the deposits in the Post Office were $656,253, and the withdrawals $613,244. Farmers and small depositors, who prefer the Post Office notwithstanding its lower rate of interest, are evidently growing better off.

Canadian farmers might note that Australian butter is fetching higher prices in the London market than anything except the best qualities of Danish, and this, according to the importers, only because Danish has been longer in the market. From Victoria alone England has taken this season two thousand tons of butter, or double the Victorian shipment last season.

On Friday last a very interesting event took place in the little mission church at Snake Plains, when Mr. Geo. F. Mills, of our town, was united in marriage to Miss C. B. McKay, second daughter of the late Rev. John McKay. The bride and groom were assisted, respectively, by Miss M. Finlayson and Mr. R. McKay, brother of the bride. The ceremony was performed by Rev. F. O. Nichol, of Snake Plain. After the marriage ceremony had been got through with, the young couple, accompanied by a large number of friends made their way to the residence of the bride's mother where a very enjoyable evening was spent. THE TIMES wishes them a long life of prosperity and happiness.

ENTERTAINMENT.

Another first-class entertainment was given in the Methodist church last Wednesday evening. The chair was occupied by Mr. C. L. Ross, and his programme gave the fullest satisfaction to all present. The lecture delivered by Rev. Mr. Harrison, of Regina, was a fine description of the extent, resources and possibilities of our country. Some of the more important elements of national greatness and prosperity were forcefully and eloquently set forth, special emphasis being given to the necessity and value of mental and moral culture to the young people of the land. The musical portion of the entertainment was a decided success. Miss Dilworth excelled herself in the beautiful and touching songs chosen for the evening. Dr. White showed himself the possessor of a fine, clear baritone voice, which specially pleased the audience in the rendering of "The Mianthe Gun at Sea" with Miss Dilworth. Two quartettes by Dr. White, Miss Dilworth Mr. and Mrs. Stacey were well sung and highly appreciated. Mrs. Mack, as usual, received an ovation, and perhaps never was she more worthy of one. She held the audience at pleasure both in her song and encore. We congratulate the committee in charge on the pronounced success of the entertainment.

GENERAL NEWS.

Ottawa, Jan. 28.—An interesting suit against the Crown is now at issue in the Exchequer Court. Bremner's claim before parliament for compensation for furs alleged to have been lost or stolen during the Northwest rebellion will be remembered, but in his case no legal proceedings have yet been taken. Now, however, the first case of the same kind has been brought into court by Emanuel Champagne, of Batoche, to whom a fiat was granted in September last, claiming $18,000 for live stock, store goods, etc., including $5,500 worth of furs alleged to have been looted by the militia under General Middleton after the taking of Batoche. Chrysler and Lewis allege, by petition of right, that Champagne was a British subject, that his place was occupied by the general for public purposes, and that, during the occupation, the general, negligently permitted Champagne's goods to be stolen or lost, while it was his duty to protect them. It is also alleged that the famous grey charger ridden by the general during the rest of the campaign, was Champagne's property, and was improperly confiscated and sold by the Crown. The defence filed by W. D. Hogg, counsel for the government, declared that Champagne was under arms as a rebel, that during the storming of Batoche his property was necessarily damaged, that the occupation of his house was a necessary incident of the campaign, and that the loss of goods complained of was due to rebel forces and not to troops. The Crown also adds that the Royal Commission of 1887 has already decided against this claim, and concludes by denying that Champagne has any right in the law to sue the Crown in such a case. To this defence a reply is filed by Chrysler and Lewis denying that Champagne was a rebel, and urging that even if he was, that the fact afforded no excuse to authorities who were responsible for his loss. It is also contended that the general and his force were during the rebellion amenable to the Imperial Army act and Queen's regulations, which explicitly prohibit looting from inhabitants at the seat of hostilities. Further, Her Majesty's pardon by proclamation in 1866 is pleaded, which also remitted all forfeitures of lands and goods incurred by those participating in the rebellion and the ability of the Royal Commission of 1886 to bind the claimants by an adverse decision is disputed.

Sir John Thompson returned and said the government would not only hold the constituencies it now holds in the seaside provinces, but would gain three. He knows nothing of going west at present.

Toronto, Jan. 28.—The annual meeting of the North American Association took place today. It happened to fall on the seventieth birthday of President Alex. Mackenzie, ex-premier of Canada, and the directors took the advantage to heartily congratulate the veteran statesman on the event, and to present him with a substantial token, in the shape of a well-filled purse, in recognition of his valuable services to the company since its incorporation.

London, Jan. 28.—The health and movements of Prince George of Wales, the new heir presumptive to the throne, are carefully watched and daily reported to the papers. He is strongly attached to the navy and the report that he intended to leave the service was premature. It has been ascertained on good authority that the prince desires to have a sole command and his wish will be complied with. He will shortly be appointed to one of the finest cruisers in the service. Before he takes his new command he will probably go on a tour of Egypt in the royal yacht "Victoria and Albert" until he has thoroughly recovered his health.

THE REORGANIZED CABINET.

The Dominion cabinet will fight the by-elections as follows:

Prime Minister and President of the Queen's Privy Council—John Joseph Caldwell Abbott.

Minister of Public Works—Joseph A. Oimmet.

Minister of Customs—Joseph Adolphe Chapleau.

Minister of Railways and Canals—John Graham Haggart.

Minister of Militia and Defence—MacKenzie Bowell.

Minister of Agriculture—John Carling.

Minister of Island Revenue—John Costigan.

Secretary of State—J. C. Patterson.

Minister of Justice—Sir John Sparrow David Thompson.

Minister of Finance—George Eulas Foster.

Minister of Marine and Fisheries—Charles Hibbert Tupper.

Postmaster-General—Sir Adolphe Caron.

Minister of the Interior—Elgar Dewdney.

Without portfolio—Frank Smith.

THE QUEEN'S THANKS.

London, Jan. 28.—The Royal Gazette last evening published the following, in relation to the death of the Duke of Clarence:

"Osborne, Jan. 28.—I must again give expression to my deep sense of the loyalty and affectionate sympathy evinced by my subjects in every part of my empire on an occasion more sad and tragic than any but one, which has befallen me and mine, as well as the nation, in the overwhelming misfortune of the death of my dearly beloved grandson, suddenly cut off in the flower of his age, full of promise for the future. That he was so amiable and gentle, and endearing himself to all, renders it hard for his sorely stricken parents, his dear young bride and fond grandmother to bow with submission to the inscrutable decree of Providence. The sympathy of millions, touching and visibly expressed, is deeply gratifying, and I wish, in our own name and that of our children, to express from our heart warm gratitude for all these testimonies of sympathy with us in appreciation of our dear grandson, whom I loved as a son, and whose devotion to me was as great as that of a son could be, in help and consolation to me and mine. My bereavements of the last thirty years of my reign have been indeed heavy, and though the labors, anxieties and responsibilities inseparable from my position have also been great, yet it is my earnest prayer that God will continue to give me health and strength to work for the good and happiness of my dear country and empire while life lasts. Victoria.

TO RELIEVE PEARY.

Philadelphia, Jan. 28.—Prof. Angelo Heilprin, who has been selected to head the expedition which the Academy of Natural Science will send to the relief of Lieut. Peary, accompanied the original expedition to McCormick Bay and is regarded by a majority of the members as a man pre-eminently qualified to command the expedition. Prof. Heilprin is engaged in drawing up the preliminary plans to be submitted to his committee. He said: "As to the plans for the expedition, they are not as yet in any shape as to details. I have simply formulated the general plan. The expedition will start from this city early in June and leave St. Johns, Nfld., in all probability in the steam whaler Kite, the same vessel which took Peary and his expedition to McCormick Bay. I expect to reach Melville Bay at about the time of the earliest breaking up of the ice packs. This usually takes place about the third week of July, when a free passage is permitted northwestward to Cape York in latitude 75 degrees, 55 minutes. Beyond Cape York the free north water is reached and in a day and a half or two days sail I believe we will reach Peary whom we hope to find safe at his headquarters. Lieut. Peary and his exploring party expected to return to their headquarters on McCormick Bay after the journey over the island in the last week of July. They will be ready to leave on their return southward between August 1 and August 15. The relief expedition will then reach Peary's headquarters about two weeks in advance of his time of departure. A year's extra provisions will be taken for Peary's party in the event of possible emergencies compelling another year's stay in the Arctic region."

CHILIAN EMBROGLIO.

Washington, Jan. 28.—The President today sent to Congress the additional correspondence in the Chilean matter. First and most important is Chili's reply to the ultimatum of Jan. 21. It is dated Jan. 25 and was received in Washington late on Jan. 25. The Chilean minister of foreign affairs in it recites the terms of the ultimatum, and then declares the assault on the Baltimore's sailors was not caused by any ill feeling toward the United States, a nation for which Chili has the highest regard. He regrets the delay in investigating the matter, caused by the course of Chilean judicial procedure.

He also reiterates the deep regret of the Chilean Government as to the whole deplorable matter. He then proposes, instead of awaiting the process of the Chilean courts, to submit the Baltimore matter to the United States Supreme Court and abide by its decision if it declares reparation to be due. In regard to the statement in the ultimatum that Chili expressed no regret for the assault, he calls attention to the various diplomatic notes which in his judgment show that his government lamented the occurrence on several occasions. As to the Matia despatch Senor Periera says: "The government of Chili absolutely withdraws the offensive expressions, a declaration which is made without reservation in order that it may receive such publicity as your Government may deem suitable. The demand for Egan's recall is also withdrawn. Senor Periera closes his note with an expression of hope that these concessions will be found satisfactory. Then follows a note from Mr. Montt to Secretary Blaine of January 23rd, which is a mere re-statement of Chili's previous position. It precedes the apology of Periera, and is therefore of little importance.

Washington, Jan. 28.—In a message transmitting additional correspondence on the Chilean affair to Congress, the President says: "I am of the opinion that there is a good prospect that the differences growing out of that serious affair can now be adjusted. The terms will be satisfactory to the government by the usual methods and without special powers of congress. This turn in the affair is very gratifying."

INTERNATIONAL TUG OF WAR.

Ottawa, Jan. 28.—The second evening of the international tug of war came off last night and was most successful. The attendance was large, including many ladies. The first tug was between Scotland and England; the former gained about an inch on the drop and never lost its advantage, winning by six inches. The French-Canadians and Germany came next, giving a most magnificent tug; Germany won half an inch on the drop, and gained another in three minutes; at nine minutes a tie was announced; this remained till near the finish when the Germans won by two inches. The English Canadians and Scotland was a good pull, but two onesided, the English Canadians winning by fifteen inches. Germany against England was again onesided, the latter winning by twenty inches.

On his return from British Columbia Hon. E. Dewdney will stop at Regina and give evidence before the Herchmer Commission. McGill will also leave for Regina in a few days.

The British Behring Sea commissioners Sir George Balcan Powell and Dr. Dawson, are still awaiting a summons from Washington. Their report is ready.

Mrs. Geo. E. Foster, wife of the minister of finance, was very low last night. There is a slight improvement this morning.

DRY GOODS IN THE UNITED STATES.

The bad condition of the dry goods trade from manufacturers down to retailers, is general, and complaints are universal, of slow sales, poor collections and small profits, on a reduced volume of business, notwithstanding the large amount of money that has gone into the interior, to pay for the big crops. This was explained under another head in this article, by the fact that this money has gone to pay old debts instead of to buy new goods. But this is only one of the causes of this depression. Over-production as well as under-consumption is one of, if not the chief cause of the complaints; for prices would not be so unsatisfactory, if the output of our mills could be marketed and the mills kept running. It is the want of wider markets, which can only be found by exporting our surplus production, which cannot be done at a profit under the increased cost of manufacture in this country, over that of our competitors in the markets of the world.—New York Banker's Magazine.

In the February Dominion Illustrated Monthly Douglas Brynner, the Dominion Archivist, draws on his remarkable knowledge of American history in the production of the true account of "Hamilton's Raid on Vincennes;" an article which will surprise a good many, and probably alter their opinion of Col. George Rogers Clark, of the Continental Army.

Battleford is to be congratulated upon securing such an important institution as a steam ferry. Besides being a great boon to settlers and citizens of that town and settlement it will also greatly facilitate travel between the settlements in eastern Saskatchewan and those in the western portions of the district. The distance for instance, between Prince Albert and Battleford will be shortened only fifty miles or a good day's travel, by avoiding the long hauls to the south and north necessitated by the elbow of the North Saskatchewan. Travelers between the two towns may now visit Carlton, where a good ferry will be in operation, proceed almost in a straight line to Battleford on the north trail and can then utilize the new ferry to land them at their destination. In a little over a week, a more direct and comfortable mode of things than formerly existed.

"German Syrup"

For Throat and Lungs

"I have been ill for about five years," "have had the best Hemorrhage Five Years." "Medical advice," "and I took the first dose in some doubt. This resulted in a few hours easy sleep. There was no further hemorrhage till next day, when I had a slight attack which stopped almost immediately. By the third day all trace of blood had disappeared and I had recovered much strength. The fourth day I sat up in bed and ate my dinner, the first solid food for two months. Since that time I have gradually gotten better and am now able to move about the house. My death was daily expected and my recovery has been a great surprise to my friends and the doctor. There can be no doubt about the effect of German Syrup, as I had an attack just previous to its use. The only relief was after the first dose." J. R. LOUGHHEAD, Adelaide, Australia.
